We respect their continued connection to land and sea, country, kin, and community. We also pay our respect to their Elders past, present, and emerging as the custodians of knowledge and lore.

Role summary

The Older Persons Health and Palliative Care Lead has overarching responsibility for leading and developing a broad range of programs that support senior Australians to access the care they need. Programs include improving the integration of aged and primary care, improving access to high quality primary care, and supporting older people to live well at home for as long as possible. This is achieved through the commissioning of navigation and early intervention in chronic disease services, which support healthy ageing and reduce pressure on local health services. The role also involves leading engagement with the residential aged care and palliative care sectors and leading the implementation of supports that build their capacity to provide quality End-of-Life care.

The role has a key role in providing strategic oversight to the implementation of a number of recommendations from the Royal Commission into Aged Care Quality and Safety. It also involves building a new team with responsibilities for fostering collaborative relationships with key partners and employing co-design approaches in commissioning work.

Key responsibilities

Role-specific

- Provide strategic oversight to the Northern Queensland Primary Health Network (NQPHN) Palliative Care – Greater Choice for At Home Palliative Care program as defined and directed by NQPHN's strategic objectives and operational plan.
- Lead commissioning initiatives such as the Care Finder program, in line with the Aged Care Funding Schedule requirements.
- Lead the development of Aged Care and Palliative Care activity workplans in partnership with internal teams.
- Develop a strategic approach and three-year plan for the delivery of all aged care programs that NQPHN is expected to deliver across the NQPHN region.
- Develop and maintain high quality relationships with key stakeholders and partner organisations to influence system reform and strategically align NQPHN in the context of local aged care system improvement.
- Ensure procurement plans and approaches are aligned with key organisational frameworks and adhere to probity requirements to build NQPHN's reputation as a high performing regional commissioning body.
- Work collaboratively with the Health Priorities Team to commission initiatives to improve outcomes for older people, including early intervention activities and models of care for chronic disease management that support healthy ageing and reduce pressures on local health services.
- Plan, develop, and coordinate activities to improve the coordination, integration, and continuity of care at the aged care and primary health care interface.
- Work collaboratively with other Commissioning Leads and the Health System Integration and Innovation Team to ensure that NQPHN service development activities complement one another and collectively contribute to delivery on NQPHN's strategic priorities.
- Participate in NQPHN planning, management and reporting processes, including the development of outcomes measures and evaluation plans.

- Provide effective coaching, mentoring, and professional development to direct reports, and apply appropriate recruitment, induction, and performance management principles to build a high performing team.

Organisation-wide

- Committed to “One PHN” and working collaboratively and engaging purposefully across the organisation, including the offices, teams, and functions.
- Ensure “best practice” processes across all areas of responsibilities.
- Comply with the Organisation’s policies and procedures.
- Ensure the safety of yourself and others in line with the organisation’s Work Health and Safety policies and procedures and the Workplace Health and Safety Act 2011.
- Perform other duties reasonably required as directed.

Key selection criteria

- Degree qualifications in a health-related discipline and five years’ experience in a leadership role within the health, community, or aged care sector.
- Demonstrated understanding of the health challenges of older persons and the opportunities and challenges for the palliative care sector in the North Queensland region.
- Demonstrated understanding of health commissioning processes, strategic health service design and delivery in a community environment, and strong clinical governance practices.
- Demonstrated project management experience, systems thinking, and a high-level ability to conduct cohesive networking and stakeholder engagement with the health sector across the NQPHN region.
- Demonstrated experience in leading, developing, and contributing to a multi-disciplinary and multifaceted team across geographical locations.
- Demonstrated interpersonal, communication (oral and written), and conflict and negotiation skills.
- Demonstrated ability to work with diverse communities, including Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander and Australian South Sea Islanders peoples in our region.

Other requirements

- Current Drivers Licence.
- Provide a National Police Check less than three months old.
- Be able to meet the requirements of a Working with Children (Blue Card) Qld (if required).
