* The webinar will be recorded

The Darling Downs and West Moreton PHN together with QLD Health invite you to attend our upcoming Gender diversity webinar.

It will focus on:

- Basics of gender and affirming care and where to learn more, for example, Auspath, ASHM and ACON online learning
- An overview of RBWH Gender Service- catchment, services, staff and what happens when a referral is received
- Referral requirements

Hosted by:

The webinar will be hosted by Dr Tanusha Ramaloo, DDWMPHN GP Liaison Officer.

Presented by:

Dr Jane Macleod, RBWH, QLD Health

Jane has just started in the role of GPwSI (GP with special interest) at RBWH Gender Service and Metro North Sexual Health and HIV service.

Prior to working in Metro North, they worked in West Moreton as a GPwSI in Developmental Paediatrics and worked as a local GP in the region and as a clinical editor for West Moreton HealthPathways. Jane also works as a medical educator for the RACGP.

Dr Graham Neilsen, RBWH, QLD Health

Graham is a Sexual Health Physician and Public Health Physician with a long history of work with QLD Health from the very earliest days of the HIV epidemic in the 1980s. He has also worked extensively in NSW and internationally [from 1995-2013] in a range of roles in Asia, the Pacific, Africa and Eastern Europe. He continues to work for QLD Health at the Gender Service, RBWH, and has a private Specialist practice at Stonewall Medical Centre in Brisbane where his work is now almost exclusively with trans and gender diverse people.
