WEBINAR + INVITATION

Iron Deficiency in Heart Failure: Should routine treatment become the new standard of care?

Tuesday 8 August 2023
7.30pm - 8.30pm AEST

As part of the CSL Vifor IRON LIVE educational meeting series, we are pleased to invite you to attend and participate in an interactive livestream webinar with Professor David Playford, and Clinical Associate Professor Pradeep Jayasuriya. The presentation and interactive case discussion will provide clinical insights into iron deficiency in heart failure and will provide practical information relevant for primary care healthcare professionals at the forefront of managing patients with iron deficiency during their daily practice.

We look forward to you joining the meeting.
