NQPHN acknowledges the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples as Australia's First Nation Peoples and the Traditional Custodians of this land. We respect their continued connection to land and sea, country, kin, and community. We also pay our respect to their Elders past, present, and emerging as the custodians of knowledge and lore.

Role summary

The Older Persons Health and Palliative Care Officer will be responsible for delivering aged care activities and interventions that directly build the capabilities of primary health care providers (PHCPs) to deliver services to older people living in the community and residential aged care facilities (RACFs). The Older Persons Health and Palliative Care Officer will facilitate initiatives that build after hours and virtual health services and solutions that enhance the care of older Australians across the three Northern Queensland Primary Health Network (NQPHN) regional sites as well as ensuring equity of access to rural and remote areas.

Key responsibilities

Role-specific

The key responsibilities of this role include, but are not limited to:

- Providing support to RACFs in our region to have appropriate clinical facilities, equipment, staff training, and technology to provide their residents with access to quality virtual care from general practitioners (GPs) and other clinicians.
- Delivering initiatives that support RACFs to implement comprehensive out-of-hours arrangements and actions plans, including appropriate staff training and resources.
- Supporting, as requested, the commissioning of early intervention initiatives that contribute to healthy aging, including through the ongoing management of long-term conditions or reducing barriers at the aged care interface, to support senior Australians to live in the community for longer.
- Facilitating strong stakeholder relationships with aged care providers, general practices, and PHCPs, as well as governing agencies and other key contacts.
- Working collaboratively with RACFs, community-based aged care organisations, and Hospital and Health Services (HHSs) in the NQPHN region to provide integration education and skilling opportunities.
- Supporting relationships with aged care peak bodies to ensure collaboration in the delivery of new models of care for transition into practice.
- Supporting the development and implementation of an NQPHN Aged Care Program Plan informed by the Department of Health and Aged Care's guidelines.
- Contributing to monitoring and evaluating the delivery of the NQPHN Aged Care Program Plan and outcomes for the PHCP workforce.
- Supporting the needs assessment, planning, and service development in relation to the Aged Care Program.
- Ensuring the NQPHN Aged Care Program Plan operates within a designated budget.

Organisation-wide

- Committed to "One PHN" and working collaboratively and engaging purposefully across the organisation, including the offices, teams, and functions.
- Ensure best practice processes across all areas of responsibilities.
- Comply with the Organisation's policies and procedures.

- Ensure the safety of yourself and others in line with the Organisation’s Workplace Health and Safety policies and procedures and the Workplace Health and Safety Act 2011.
- Perform other duties reasonably required, as directed.

Key selection criteria

- Degree qualifications in a health-related discipline and two years’ experience in a similar role, or a VET qualification, and/or a minimum of three years’ aged care experience.
- Demonstrated understanding of opportunities and challenges for the aged care sector in the North Queensland region.
- Understanding of the technological and digital systems used in aged care in Australia.
- Understanding of health commissioning processes, health service design and delivery in a community environment.
- Demonstrated knowledge and experience in supporting aged care service development, program implementation, monitoring, and evaluation.
- Experience in supporting the development, implementation, and evaluation of aged care capacity building interventions within the primary health care and/or community services field.
- Significant knowledge to support cohesive networking and stakeholder engagement in the aged care sector across the NQPHN region.
- Demonstrated ability to prioritise and meet deadlines in a high demand work environment.
- Demonstrated interpersonal, communication (oral and written), engagement, and negotiation skills.
- Demonstrated ability to work with diverse communities including Aboriginals, Torres Strait Islanders, and Australian South Sea Islanders in our region.

Other requirements

- Current Drivers Licence.
- Provide a National Police Check less than three months old.
- Be able to meet the requirements of a Working with Children (Blue Card) Qld (if required).
