

GP Urgent Care workshop

For general practitioners

Northern Queensland Primary Health Network (NQPHN), together with The Benchmark Group invite general practitioners (GPs) to a two-day Urgent Care workshop.

In this workshop, GPs will refresh and build their skills in a range of areas important to the Urgent Care space, including patient assessment, wound closure, splinting, cannulation, and ECG interpretation.

This workshop includes skills sessions on:

- cannulation
- clinical assessment in Urgent Care
- ECG interpretation
- management of bites and stings
- splinting and immobilisation
- suturing and wound closure.

Register early as places are limited and are expected to fill quickly.

For further information, please contact the Benchmark Group on 1300 855 568 or email courses@benchmarkgroup.com.au

GP Urgent Care is an RACGP CPD approved activity: ID 844777.
