

ashm

Developing a sustainable HIV, viral hepatitis & sexual health workforce

QLD Mpox Webinar

Increased Australian mpox cases highlight the need for early detection and management by healthcare providers to prevent further spread.

Date, Time & Venue:

Date: Tuesday, 13 August 2024

Time: 6:00 – 7:15pm (AEST)

Virtual Attendance: Online – Teams

Target Audience

Primary health care practitioners (GPs and Nurses), sexual health providers and emergency department clinicians.

Learning Outcomes

- Understand the epidemiology of mpox in Queensland and Australia, along with the corresponding public health responses.
- Develop strategies to enhance mpox vaccination rates within your clinic
- Recognise indications for mpox testing by understanding its signs and symptoms

Endorsement and CPD

HIV s100 Prescribers will receive 1 ASHM HIV CPD point for attending the session.

RACGP Accreditation pending

Speakers

Mark Stickley, Public Health Physician, Metro South Public Health Unit

Andrew Redmond, Infectious Diseases Physician, Royal Brisbane and Women's Hospital

Caroline Thng, Medical Director, Sexual Health Service, Gold Coast

Ethan Salleh, GP, Gladstone Road Medical Centre

Click to register

For further details or assistance contact:

ASHM Education

M: 0431 320 429

E: education@ashm.org.au

Queensland Government

This activity is funded by Queensland Health.

