

Shake, rattle & roll!

Mark your diaries and join leading Mater Townsville specialists for an informative education evening tailored for General Practitioners, discussing tremor, Parkinson's disease, and Deep Brain Stimulation for movement disorders.

Program

6.15pm Registration and networking

6.30pm Presentations & Dinner

8.30pm Evaluations and close

Dr Craig Costello,
Neurologist

Tremor differentials for primary care, screening and managing your patients with tremor.

Professor Matthew McDonald,
Neurosurgeon

The role of Deep Brain Stimulation for movements disorders.

Learning outcomes

- Explain and differentiate tremor symptoms, investigations, and treatment options for patients.
- Describe complementary physical therapy approaches for Parkinson's disease patients.
- Summarize the role of Deep Brain stimulation for movement disorders.
- Outline GPs role to support patients with tremors.

Event details

Thursday
24 October 2024, 6.15pm

Conference Room
The Palmer Collective,
12 Palmer Street, Townsville

RSVP prior to 18 October
2024

Scan here to RSVP

A certificate of attendance will be provided for 2 hours educational activities.

All enquiries

peta.carmody@mater.org.au
or phone 0400 184 840