Role summary

The Senior Contracts and Performance Officer has responsibility for the management, administration, and performance of commissioning contracts. This role plays a key part in the Commissioning Cycle and requires active collaboration across all commissioning functions to be successful.

The role includes:

- Providing operational support across the Commissioning portfolios to ensure the effective management, administration, and performance of contracts.
- Working in collaboration with other NQPHN functions in the design, management, monitoring, and evaluation of contracts to ensure services are delivered effectively to improve outcomes and meet local need.

Key responsibilities

Role-specific

- Adopt a holistic approach to evaluating contract performance by using the NQPHN Commissioning Cycle to guide delivery of health services, with particular consideration for the inputs into contract design and evaluation.
- Provide best practice expertise for management and performance of commissioning contracts, including understanding contract variations and milestone reporting.
- Develop and maintain high quality relationships with key stakeholders in the aged care sector, particularly with residential aged care facilities (RACFs), community-based aged care organisations, and Hospital and Health Services (HHSs).
- Facilitate the provision of integration education and skilling opportunities.
- Provide support to residential aged care facilities (RACFs) in the NQPHN region to have appropriate clinical facilities, equipment, staff training, and technology to provide their residents with access to quality virtual care from general practitioners (GPs) and other clinicians.
- Deliver initiatives that support RACFs to implement comprehensive out-of-hours arrangements and actions plans, including appropriate staff training and resources.
- Collaborate with NQPHN staff from other functional areas, particularly the Health System Integration and Innovation team to monitor and evaluate contract performance.
- Support the development of resource materials required for contract management, administration, and performance and ensure distribution as appropriate.
- Undertake administrative tasks such as production and distribution of correspondence, reports and/or presentations relating to contract management, administration, and performance.
- Effectively manage contracts through building strong relationships with health service providers and other key stakeholders.
- Support collaboration across all NQPHN teams to ensure the programs delivered are in line with the Organisation's strategic and operational requirements.

- Support the team in ensuring the agreed performance outcomes for programs across all commissioning portfolios are delivered, monitored, and reported in line with recommended frameworks and guidelines.
- Support the development and implementation of an NQPHN Aged Care Program Plan informed by the Department of Health and Aged Care (DHAC) guidelines.
- Support and collaborate within the team to ensure an integrated approach to commissioning.

Organisation-wide

- Committed to “One PHN” and working collaboratively and engaging purposefully across the organisation, including the offices, teams, and functions.
- Ensure “best practice” processes across all areas of responsibilities.
- Comply with the Organisation’s policies and procedures.
- Ensure the safety of yourself and others in line with the organisation’s Workplace Health and Safety policies and procedures and the Workplace Health and Safety Act 2011.
- Perform other duties reasonably required, as directed.
